

Sedalia Evening Democrat.

NEW SERIES.

SEDALIA, MISSOURI, THURSDAY, JULY 28, 1892.

PRICE, FIVE CENTS.

THEY ARE GONE.

THE REPUBLICANS STRIKE THEIR TENTS.

The Night Trains Carry Away the Crowd of Yesterday and Sedalia Is Herself Again.

The bands have stopped playing, the flags are folded away, the hurrahs for Warner are hushed and Sedalia has again put on her every day clothes. The crowd yesterday was a large one and taxed Sedalia's capacity to entertain them. It is pleasant to know, however, that all the visitors left praising our hospitality, surprised that Sedalia was ever half as large as they found her and looking forward with pleasure to the day when they shall return again. The hotels threw their doors wide open and though they were rushed, of course, yet no one was allowed to go hungry.

A large crowd listened to Major Warner and Hon. R. G. Horr at the park yesterday afternoon. The former spoke for three hours and said later that the "inclemency of the weather prevented his speaking further." Mr. Horr followed with one of his characteristic speeches.

The streets at night put on a decidedly gala appearance. Glee clubs, drum corps and brass bands paraded on all the business streets, the small boy yelled until he was almost black in the face, and not until a late hour did the uproar cease.

Major Warner met the newspaper men of the state in the parlors of the Commercial club rooms at 8 o'clock. The press was well represented, many newspaper men being present from St. Louis, Kansas City and other points throughout the state. The St. Louis glee club and the Sedalia glee club sang some campaign songs and were followed by Major Warner who made a short talk to the scribes, after which there was a general handshaking.

The streets by this time were already packed and jammed around the court house where stands had been erected for the evening speeches. The time was mostly taken up by Hon. R. G. Horr who fusilladed his audience with republican doctrine for about an hour. Major Warner followed in a parting address.

Between the speeches of these two gentlemen was the display of fireworks by the Sedalia flambeau club. A better one was never given in Sedalia. Headed by the drum corps, the club formed in front of Eastey's on Ohio and marched to the court house, where the boys passed twice around the square. The square was lit up bright as day, and the roar of bombs, the continuous discharge of sky-rockets and the cheering of the crowd made a splendid sight.

Major Warner and Hon. R. G. Horr left on the midnight train for St. Louis.

He Stopped the Horse.

Yesterday afternoon Ed. Stewart, clerk for C. H. Dexter, was sitting in the firms delivery wagon in front of Fleischmann's store, with his feet hanging over the end of the seat. In some way the horse became frightened and started to run away. It wheeled suddenly and the seat was thrown from the wagon. Ed came near going with it, but managed to grasp the dash board and drew himself back. He then climbed out on the shafts, reached almost up to the horse's neck and caught the lines. He then got back into the wagon and soon had the runaway stopped. It was rather a daring thing and the crowd cheered Ed. to the echo.

The Elevator.

The Loupe elevator on the Pacific track west of the depot is well under headway. The frame work of the first story has been completed and the builders evidently mean to keep the elevator well-filled, judging from the immense timbers used in its construction.

The big fill for the side track leading to the Missouri Pacific main line has been thrown up and is now ready for the ties and rails.

A Horse Injured.

A horse belonging to Rev. B. F. Boller, was severely cut by barbed wire while hitched at Association park yesterday.

It was standing near the entrance where the car line unloads its passengers. In some way its right forefoot became entangled in the fence and was badly cut, an artery being severed. The blood came gushing out and ran in pools on the ground. A gentleman who was passing by took the hitch rein and compressed the artery sufficiently to stop the strong flow of blood.

EXAGGERATED ESTIMATES.

How Enthusiasm Plays Tricks upon the Judgement.

The republican rally was a success in point of numbers as well as in arrangements, but it would have been just as much of a success without the ridiculous exaggeration that is indulged in by some of the newspapers. It is natural, however, when the bands begin to play and the banners to wave in the breeze, for even a reporter's imagination to take wings and fly away with him off and beyond the region of cold facts.

One enthusiastic journalist exclaims:

"At least 20,000 strangers were in the city to-day, with Warner marching clubs from almost every town in Central Missouri."

Another, even more enthusiastic, says:

"No political campaign, in any state, was ever opened under more auspicious circumstances than that inaugurated yesterday in this city by Major William Warner and 25,000 of his political friends and admirers."

The same journal says: "Over six thousand people took part in the procession to the park."

Another reporter grew even wilder in his figures and says:

"Fully 15,000 men formed the lines and marched to the music of a dozen bands, all shouting for Warner and the new Missouri."

Now, what are the cold facts?

It would have required about 300 passenger coaches to have brought the "20,000 strangers" to the town. Were they here? Hardly.

There were, at a liberal estimate, not over 4,000 strangers in town, and many of them were democrats who came to witness and not to participate in the demonstration.

Fifteen thousand men would have formed a procession over four miles long. This one did not reach it.

A procession containing six thousand men, strung out as those were, would have reached from Association park well into East Sedalia.

A cool-headed business man counted the number in the procession as it passed a point on Fifth street and he gives the exact number, including the female base ball club and the drivers of the various carriages, at nine hundred and eighty-five.

But it was a big demonstration, even with a thousand in line and four thousand strangers in town, and when the people of all political parties came out to see the parade and the flambeau club there were a whole lot of people in sight. Not the half of twenty-five thousand, though, at any one time.

Marriage Belts.

At 5 p. m. July 27, 1892, at 508 South Osage avenue, in the Queen City, Mr. J. S. Strong, of Peoria, Illinois, to Mrs. Jane Grigley, of Sedalia, Mo., Wm. B. North, of the M. E. Church, South, performing the ceremony.

At the residence of Mrs. Mary Funk 1723 South Kentucky avenue, in Sedalia, Mo., at 8:30 p. m., July 27, 1892, Mr. Jas. W. Rowlette to Miss Nannie P. Pratt, Wm. B. North, of the M. E. Church, South, officiating. All of Sedalia, Mo.

Lost His Pocketbook.

O. Kendrick, of Clarksburg, Montevau county, was at the park yesterday afternoon and while there became very warm. He pulled off his coat and was carrying it on his arm when his wallet fell from an inside pocket and was lost. In it were two checks; one for $50, signed by J. A. Landers, and the other for $20, signed by N. G. Hickman. Both were drawn on the Clarksburg bank.

The Base Ball Girls.

The female base ball club left last night for Jefferson City where they will play to-day. A good sized crowd witnessed the game at the park yesterday afternoon and the friends of the Sedalia nine will be pleased to know that in the two games the boys have swelled their bank account. The score yesterday stood 9 to 11 in favor of the women.

Lost a Diamond.

A $150 diamond shirt stud was lost at the park yesterday by one of the St. Louis delegation. It became unscrewed.

ALTA BEARD.

ADDITIONAL TESTIMONY FURNISHED BY SANDRIDGE.

Developments That Tend to Clear Up the Mystery Surrounding the Disappearance.

J. W. Sandridge, the man whose name has been associated with the disappearance of Alta Beard, made a confession, to a DEMOCRAT reporter this morning that clears up the mystery surrounding the singular departure. Said he, "that girl has either been married or will be before the close of day. I knew all the time she was going to marry, but knowing that it would enable her to escape maltreatment at home, I did not interfere. Then, too, I didn't say anything to her parents because they were so uncharitable as to accuse me of spiriting her away. I boarded at the Beard house for eighteen months, and I have a personal knowledge of the ordeals which the poor girl was compelled to undergo by her stepmother.

Sandridge said the girl had eloped with a young coal miner who hails from Marysville, Nodaway county, though he didn't remember anything but his nickname, which was "Shorty."

Alta made a confidant of him he said and he used to act as a medium of communication between herself and lover.

A darkey was in town this morn-slightest idea that Miss Beard had run away from home.

"After a few days Miss Alta informed Mrs. Barnes that she was not going to Hughesville, as she had made up her mind not to go home again. She then said that her parents did not know that she had left home, nor was she going to let them know where she was. When asked why she had left home, she said that her mother was very unkind to her, and upon the slightest provocation would beat her, and that she had done so when others were present.

"The first information that the police had in regard to the girl's disappearance was the account that was published in Tuesday's Journal, and yesterday Lieutenant Ahearn located Miss Beard at a restaurant owned by Mrs. Crouch, at No. 2315 East Fifteenth street, where she obtained employment last Sunday. When she read the account in the Journal she determined to leave, and gave Mrs. Crouch notice to that effect, and when the officers arrived she was nowhere to be found. The matter was placed in the hands of Humane Officer Marrah, who went to the restaurant where he was informed that John Ward, a brother of Miss Barnes, had gone to the Union depot with Miss Beard to see her safely off to Sedalia, which is only twelve miles from Hughesville.

"Mrs. Barnes was seen last evening by a Journal reporter and said that she did not know whether Miss Beard had gone to Sedalia or not. She further said Miss Beard had answered advertisements in the papers to see whether she could not get more agreeable work than that which ing who stated that on Thursday morning about four o'clock he met the girl on her way to Dresden. She carried several bundles, evidently the five dress which her mother said she took.

It was at this point Sandridge says she boarded the train, money for the trip having been provided by her affianced.

Speaking of the Kansas City special contained in the morning papers, Sandridge said the girl on discovering that she was recognized would lose no time now in getting married so as to prevent the possibility of being brought back home.

Sandridge referred to the girl in the most endearing terms and said he loved her as though she were his own daughter.

The Kansas City Journal of to-day has the following to say of her being in Kansas City:

"Miss Alta Beard, the 16-year-old daughter of Albert Beard, a well-to-do farmer living near Hughesville, Pettis county, who left her home on the night of July 20th without leaving any information as to where she was going, has been located here in Kansas City.

"Wednesday, July 20th, Mrs. J. E. Barnes, living at No. 2313 East Fifteenth street, received a letter from Miss Beard in which the writer asked her to 'met Miss Alta Beard at the union depot Thursday morning upon the arrival of the train from Sedalia.' Mrs. Barnes was at the depot at the appointed time and meeting the young lady took her home with her. She told Mrs. Barnes that she was going to visit her for a short time, and as she had only a small amount of wearing apparel wrapped up in a newspaper, Mrs. Barnes had not the

she had been doing. "I was away" continued Mrs. Barnes' "all day yesterday, and I do not know whether she obtained a situation or not. All I do know is that Alta came to the house where I was visiting and said that she would like to get into my house, as she wanted to get some of her clothes. My brother accompanied her to my house and she took a few of her belongings and then he left her and went to his home on Eighteenth street and Alta went in an opposite direction. This is all I know about it, but I hardly think that she has gone out of the city, as she has left a part of her wardrobe here at my house."

"Asked if the young lady had money enough to take care of her self, Mrs. Barnes said that she had $5 or $6.

"The police do not believe that the girl has left the city and were on the lookout for her last evening. She seems to be a person of intelligence and ability, but she has been an invalid for several years, having suffered from rheumatism in her lower limbs. She is not a strong girl and is not fitted to earn her own living. On leaving home she left a note informing her father that she had gone out into the world to earn her own living."

Not a Single Fire.

The fire department did not receive a single call yesterday. This is something unusual when one takes into consideration the many opportunities for a blaze that a crowded city afforded.

POLICE COURT.

A BIG OFFICIAL GRIND THIS MORNING.

A Noted Crook Discharged--Most of the Unfortunates Were Drunks and Trespassers.

The police court this morning assumed quite a metropolitan air. All the seats were taken and the curtain rose to a full house--many whom had been much fuller the day before.

Chas. Lee, a mulatto came down from Kansas City, yesterday to rally a little. He went to sleep on the street about 12 o'clock last night and when touched up by an officer, was unable to rally and was promptly thrown into the calaboose. A fine of $5 with a stay was given him as a lesson.

Ed. Bennett, a negro from Concordia, was one of the best little boys in court, to hear him tell it. He was up in court yesterday morning, but was given a stay to leave the city on the first train. He failed to do it, and when Officer Mooney and Detective Frank Barnett saw him last night, he took to his heels and tried to escape. Two shots were fired to bring him to a halt, but this only increased his speed. As he approached Bowers' lively stable on main street, Mr. Bowers was seated in his buggy and, jumping out, struck Bennett with his lantrn. This stopped him and the officers took him in charge. A fine of $5 caused Eddie to almost suffocate.

Frank Berd, for trespassing, was fined $5 and given a stay.

The following drunks were fined $5 and given a stay: Frank Edwards, Jim Donnell, R. F. Doff, John Doskin.

Dan Boyle and N. H. Murrell were each $3 and costs for peddling without a license.

Billy Ryder was up for intoxication and had his case postponed until to-morrow.

John Smith and Ed. Jones, for trespassing, were fined $5 each.

Geo. Kumph and Thos Smith were found loitering around the city at a late hour and were fined $10 each for the offence.

Then came Wm. Devine alias W. S. Walton, of St. Louis, a well-known crook, who was arrested yesterday on suspicion. No additional evidence could be obtained to-day and he was accordingly discharged and given until 12 o'clock to leave the city.

Louis Bolton's Horses.

Louis Bolton, the well-known horse trainer left yesterday for the Mexico fair with eighteen of the finest horses ever taken from Sedalia. If Louis doesn't come pretty near carrying off the palm no one else need waste time trying.

Good Cold Water.

Chas. Dexter received the thanks of the thirsty multitude yesterday by placing a barrel of cold ice water in front of his place of business on Second and second.

The EVENING DEMOCRAT.

"I would earnestly advise them for their good to order this paper to be punctually served up and to be looked upon as a part of the tea equipage."—ADDISON.

SPECIAL NOTICE.—Patrons of the EVENING DEMOCRAT will confer a favor upon the management by promptly reporting any irregularity in delivery or bad condition of paper from improper handling.

THE DEMOCRAT wants to see a joint debate between Stone and Warner.

Road improvement is not a partisan issue, but it is a very important question.

There is a deadlock in the democratic congressional convention in the Fifteenth district.

The gay and festive Dalton boys are adding bank robbery to their regular business of holding up trains.

The way to stand up for Missouri is to stand up for the party which has made the state worth standing up for.

The democrats of Marshall have organized a Stone club. The idea is to make it unanimous in Saline this year.

EVERY democrat who is worthy of the name believes in standing up for Missouri at all time and under all circumstances.

MAJOR WARNER wants to know what has become of the democratic plurality in this state. He will encounter it on the 8th of November.

The people's party and the silver men of Colorado are arranging for a fusion state and electoral ticket. It is safe to put Colorado down as anti-Harrison.

HARRISON may repudiate the force bill in his letter of acceptance, but he will not deceive the voters of the country by doing so. The measure is his especial pet.

The Old Colony club will give a complimentary dinner to Cleveland. All speeches made after dinner should be carefully examined to see that they are not loaded.

THOSE of his hearers who expected Major Warner to explain away the Osborne interview and the subsequent statement of Judge Sheffield were sadly disappointed.

THE deadlock in the Ninth district still continues and Champ Clark shows no signs of a willingness to base his hopes of a congressional career upon the turn of a nickel.

DEMOCRATS have been standing up for Missouri for seventy-one years, and the DEMOCRAT is glad to see that even the most rabid republican papers concede that this course is right.

The republican rally was a grand success and the DEMOCRAT congratulates the local committees upon their earnest and intelligent work. The attendance was large and everybody went away with a good opinion of Sedalia. As a vote maker there was not much in the rally; as an advertisement of Sedalia, however, it was immense and fully worth every dollar it cost.

ONLY REPUBLICAN BUNCOMBE.

One fallacious argument continually used by republican oracles to catch the great labor vote has been exposed in the light of recent events. In season and out of season, says the Detroit Free Press, the exponents of republican principles have insisted that a protective tariff makes higher wages, and that to remove it would be a long step toward pauperizing the workmen of America. This is a subject regarding which the toiling masses can afford to make no mistake. Wages will not be lowered by reducing the tariff or even by its entire removal. Tariffs do not increase the prices paid for labor, but they do frequently produce a glutted state of the market which leads to enforced idleness or a reduction of wages. When the manufacturer, to get protection for the manufactured articles that he produces, is obliged to consent also to a protection of the raw material which he uses, he is frequently shut out of all the markets of the world, save that at home, and when that is overstocked he is obliged to quit producing, or to increase the market by cheapening his products. That is the effect of tariff on wages.

The fact that wages in this country are higher than in Europe, although commonly urged by protectionists as proof that the tariff increases wages, has no bearing on the case. Wages have always been higher in this country than in Europe, whether or not a tariff system was in operation here. A chief reason is that the more sparsely a country is settled the better the price paid for labor. This is universally true and has ample illustration within our own borders. Miners in states like Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana do not average $1 per day, while in Wyoming they receive more than double that sum. In population and natural resources the two foreign countries most resembling this are the Australian colonies and New South Wales, one of which has a protective tariff and the other free trade. In both of them wages are practically the same as in the United States.

Compare England with other European countries like France, Italy, Germany and Russia, which have protective tariffs, and you find that wages are higher in free trade England than in any of the others. The explanation is that English labor is more intelligent and better organized, while labor in this country and Australia are better organized than in England. Labor organizations are a potent agency in keeping up wages and it is for this reason that capital, having received protection, is now seeking to deprive labor of its strongest safeguard. Manufacturers handle the immense profits given them through protection, and they yield to labor only such share as it can get by organization. The beneficiaries of the McKinley law aim to protect their industries and purchase labor in a free market. The remedy is to place both upon a common level.

A MUCH FELT WANT.

The continued hot weather is beginning to tell seriously says the Kansas City Journal. In the country the corn and the grass are feeling its effects, though the injury done so far is small. A few good showers within the next ten days will set at rest all anxiety on this score.

But in the cities the effects are present and destructive. Here it is human creatures, not vegetation merely that is suffering. The prostrations in Chicago and other cities from the heat are distressingly numerous, and the fatal cases are multiplying as the days go by. Kansas City, owing to superior climatic advantages and perpetual breezes, has so far escaped; and yet it has been uncomfortably warm even in Kansas City.

The question has been raised, why do not men of science turn their attention to providing artificial comfort in hot weather? We have ice, to be sure, but that is to cool our drink and food merely. In winter we are provided not only with warmth for inward use, but our houses are heated with hot air, steam, etc. A cold temperature is produced for refrigerating rooms; why is not apparatus prepared for conducting frigid currents of air from the basement through the various stories and rooms of dwellings? How much more comfortable it would be these nights if instead of huddling about the south windows in dishabille, trying to get a breath of air, we could turn on a cold current from within, like turning on the gas.

Is not science and inventive genius equal to the task of robbing hot weather of at least a portion of its terror? Enterprise is strangely tardy in looking after the comfort of humanity in this important direction.

We are glad to notice that Maj. Warner draws the line at the state boundaries. He is not soliciting votes for Mr. Harrison, says the St. Joseph Gazette, but only asks the Missouri democrats for a boost for himself. This simplifies things, mightily. The only question for the democrats of Missouri to decide is whether the state is to be handed over to the fellows who were fired into outer darkness twenty years ago, and who left behind them a record for rascality, dishonesty and oppression unmatched in the history of the country. By the time Maj. Warner gets through "standing up for Missouri" he will be ready to lie down for the rest of his days.

EACH side of the Homestead trouble is calling the other anarchists, says the St. Louis Chronicle, and when the Man Up a Tree weighs the brutal lockout of Frick against the assumption of control of the steel works by the advisory committee, Pinkertonism against the mob, the expressions of sympathy for Frick's assailant against the tricing up by the thumbs of Private Iams—he must conclude that both are more than half right.

MAJOR WARNER says he came from Wisconsin to Missouri in 1865. A great many of his hearers were disappointed that he did not go a little further into particulars and tell them whether or not it is a fact that he came from Cornwall, England, to Wisconsin, and also explain how and when he became a naturalized citizen, if such an event ever occurred. So far, however, Mr. Osborne's statement stands uncontradicted.

THE Pettis county republicans didn't seem very enthusiastic at the rally and if it had not been for the numerous visitors present it would have been a tame affair. Come to think of it, however, the Pettis county republicans have mighty little cause to feel enthusiastic. When Sedalia went democratic in April all the enthusiasm died in the republicans ranks.

MAJ. GEN. SNOWDEN, who approved the brutal punishment of Private Iams, has been relieved from command of the militia at Homestead. Col. Streater should be given a sentence that will teach him some respect for law. He is altogether too despotic for a citizen-soldier.

JUDGE METSKER is going to have the electric line in operation on Third street by August 14th, and there will be no trouble about getting to and from the fair grounds. It is to be hoped that the work of paving the street will also be completed by that time.

GEORGE B. MORETON, editor of the Journal of Agriculture, and one of the most earnest supporters of Farmer Dick Dalton for the gubernatorial nomination, most heartily endorses the nomination of Stone, and promises to work zealously for his election.

MAJOR WARNER wants to know where is the boasted plurality of 54,000 by which the democrats of Missouri elected Crittenden? If the major will scan the returns from the last election in this state, held in 1890, he will see that that plurality has increased to about 60,000.

If our republican friends really intend to stand up for Missouri they are to be congratulated upon beginning at this late day what they should have been doing for twenty-five years.

THE deadlock in the democratic convention in the Fourteenth judicial circuit was broken by the nomination of Hon. D. A. Shackelford, of Boonville, a gentleman, a democrat and a lawyer of ability.

To Summer Tourists.

The season is at hand when the man of affairs, the man who, through the long winter months, has devoted his best energies to the tasks and problems of the counting room, the office, the pulpit, or legislative halls; when the matron and the maid, wearied of the long season of social gaiety or confinement in the school or lecture room, betake themselves to the sea shore, the mountains, the country or the springs, in search of pleasure and rest. The Missouri, Kansas and Texas railway has placed on sale summer tourist tickets at very low rates, with long transit limits, good to return until October 1st or 15th. Every variety of amusements and the most picturesque of surroundings are thus placed within the reach of all.

The Old Timers are not In It

While at our other store at Big Island, Va., last April, I was taken with a very severe attack of diarrhoea. I never had it worse in my life. I tried several old-time remedies, such as Blackberry Wine, Paragoric and Laudanum, without getting any relief. My attention was then called to Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy by Mr. R. C. Tinsley who had been handling it there, and in less than five minutes after taking a small dose I was entirely relieved. —O. G. BURFORD, Harris Creek, Amherst Co., Va. For sale by Aug. FIFTY DEATHS.

One Day's Sun Slaughter in Chicago.

MANY MORE HOPELESS CASES.

Hospitals Filled With Suffering Patients—Horses Dropping and Police Overworked For a Wonder—No Cool Spots.

CHICAGO, July 28.—The slaughter by the sun was still on in Chicago yesterday, fifty deaths and twice as many prostrations by the heat having occurred. Although there is in the prediction of a cold wave a possibility of relief, it is certain the number of deaths will be largely increased during the next few days. The hospitals are filled with patients suffering from sunstroke, many of whom can not possibly recover. The record Tuesday, which surpassed anything in the number of deaths and prostrations from heat that this city has ever known, was eclipsed by the awful work of the sun yesterday.

The temperature was about 4 deg. lower than that of Tuesday according to the official record of the government office, which was 88 at noon on the Auditorium tower, but down on the pavements, where what little breeze there was came hot and stifling, the mercury was in many places 105 to 112 in the sun and from 92 to 94 in the shade.

The parks were packed from early morning until late at night by crowds of people who imagined that sticky green branches and brown shriveled grass were more comfortable than the inside of their own homes. But all their efforts to find a habitable abiding place were in vain. There was no comfort to be had anywhere and the man who sought it was the man who found the least of it.

In the business portion of the city work was seriously handicapped by the heat. The number of horses which were sunstruck and caused temporary blockades of the crowded thoroughfares could hardly be counted.

There were not enough horses in the entire police department to carry off the animals which fell during the day in and about the business center of the city alone, and it was found necessary to call in outside help, for the ambulances and patrol wagons had all they could do in caring for the suffering people, and had little or no time to devote to horses.

The police were for once the most overworked body of men in Chicago. They were on the jump from early morning until midnight, and so severe was the work that several officers were prostrated and had to be removed to their homes. At the county hospital the entire staff of physicians was engaged with cases of sunstroke. There was not enough help, although every possible assistant was pressed into the service.

ROBBERING A BANK.

Two Chitlin Tempored Individuals Hold Up the Bank of El Reno, Ok.

EL RENO, Ok., July 28.—At 10:30 o'clock outlaws entered the Bank of El Reno, overawed Mrs. S. W. Sawyer, wife of the president, and herself cashier, and forced her to give up $10,500.

While Mrs. Sawyer was alone in the banking house a stranger entered, stepped up to the cashier's window, made an inquiry about some town lots and then went to a desk and began writing. In a moment another stranger appeared at the cashier's desk and presenting a revolver at Mrs. Sawyer's head, demanded that she hand out all the money in the bank.

Mrs. Sawyer was so frightened at first that she could not move, but the robber threatened to shoot if she did not act quickly, and in a dazed way she entered the vault and handed to him all the packages of bills in the safe and what was in the daily change drawer, aggregating about $10,500, less than $100 of it in silver.

The man who was writing at the desk turned quickly, seized the money as Mrs. Sawyer handed it through the wicket and disappeared out the door, the one holding the revolver following quickly. Mrs. Sawyer screamed several times and fell over in a swoon.

The robbers mounted horses standing at the edge of the pavement and rode out Rock Island avenue as fast as they could go.

Mrs. Sawyer was the only person in the bank, the president, Mr. Sawyer, being absent in Oklahoma City and arriving home about thirty minutes after the robbery. The attack was made at an hour when business was quiet.

Swindle in Texas Lands.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., July 28.—William Fleming, a carpenter employed at the new Armour plant, was arrested in Kansas City, Kan., yesterday morning on a warrant sworn out in Texas, charging him with forging deeds to property in the Lone Star state. The arrest was made by Deputy Sheriff Cummings and the prisoner was turned over to Ranger Owens, of Texas, who left on the noon train with Fleming for Austin. The arrest of Fleming brings to light a gigantic scheme laid by a number of sharpers for disposing of extensive lands belonging to other parties by forging deeds to the same and thus realizing a goodly profit.

Factories Close on Account of Heat.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., July 28.—Owing to the intense heat Widdicombe's furniture and mantel factories shut down Tuesday, the workmen finding it impossible to work. Several other factories did likewise, and outdoor work is practically at a standstill, though no cases of sunstroke have yet been reported.

A sensational feature in the Private Lams' case was brought out when members of the Randall club at Pittsburgh, Pa., announced they would take steps to have Lieut. Col. Streator expelled from the club.

THE WORLD'S FAIR.

House Filibustering Prevents Favorable Action.

WASHINGTON, July 28.—There was a larger attendance to-day than usual in the house of representatives, as the majority of members were anxious that the world's fair amendment should be settled in order that an adjournment might leave them free to seek cooler climes. Yesterday the sentiment generally expressed was that the opposition had a slight majority, but the wind this morning had veered around to the world's fair quarter.

The opposition to the appropriation decided to make the test of strength on Mr. Bankhead's amendment making a nominal appropriation of $5 for the fair, but when a vote on this resulted 60 to 13 against, a recount was asked for and granted.

Then came the vote on the amendment proper. The official vote on this was 117 for the fair and 105 against it. Mr. Holman at once moved to reconsider and Mr. Bingham to lay it on the table.

The filibusters then showed their hand. They had been beaten on the square vote and began their dilatory tactics by Mr. Outhwaite, of Ohio, moving to adjourn till Friday. This motion, of course, had precedence of Mr. Bingham's motion and the situation was further complicated by Mr. Bailey, of Texas, moving to adjourn till Saturday instead of Friday. The word went round among the filibusters not to vote on the roll call on the prospects of Mr. Bailey's motion.

The house refused to adjourn by a vote of 32 to 143. The point no quorum was raised and Mr. Bingham moved a call of the house which was thus fairly embarked on the tedious filibustering voyage. The vote on adjournment showed that the world's fair men lacked 22 of a quorum and the filibusters began fighting the ordering of the call of the house.

After vain efforts to make some progress the house adjourned leaving the world's fair matter hung up.

THE VOLCANIC ERUPTION.

The People Overwhelmed With Awful Suddenness.

AMSTERDAM, July 28.—The Handels-blan of this city publishes letters from Celebes giving details of the recent eruption of the volcano Gunona on Great Sandmir island. The eruption commenced at 6 p. m. early in June and was unheralded by the slightest warning. Immense volumes of flame and smoke and masses of stones suddenly burst from the volcano. The stones fell all over the island, killing hundreds of natives who were busy in the fields getting in the rice crop. Those who succeeded in reaching the supposed shelter of their homes found no refuge, many houses having been crushed beneath the weight of the falling stones and roofs having collapsed under the weight of ashes, burying the inmates and in many instances whole families. Streams of lava flowed with frightful rapidity down the slopes of the mountain, upon which there were situated numerous farms and villages. Houses and fugitives alike were overwhelmed by those rivers of molten rock. It is estimated that over 1,000 persons perished in the slopes of the mountains and hundreds more in the lowlands, but the exact loss of life is not yet known. A week after the eruption had abated the inhabitants were still in a state of terror and would not approach the scene of the disaster. The island is now threatened with famine, all the crops having been destroyed. Cocoa trees are still standing, but their leaves and fruit have been destroyed and their stems left bare. In many parts of the island wells have become dry. The Dutch of the colonies are doing their best for the inhabitants of the island. Many doctors have been sent to the scene of the disaster.

Gen. Stevenson in Chicago.

CHICAGO, July 28.—Gen. Adlai E. Stevenson, accompanied by Mrs. Stevenson, arrived in this city last evening from Bloomington and registered at the Palmer house, where they will remain for a couple of days. The general presented that freshness of appearance which follows needed rest. Since his return from the east he has had a herculean task in getting rid of the pile of correspondence which accumulated during his absence. He says he intends remaining at home for some time to come and has not made any engagements of a political nature.

Corn Not Injured.

JEWELL CITY, Kan., July 28.—Reports have gone out that the Kansas corn crop is on the verge of ruin. So far as Jewell county is concerned it is not true. The crop is in good condition and growing rapidly. Some of the corn is tasseling, and if the extreme hot weather should continue for ten days, the tassels would be injured and the crop damaged. But the crop is by no means in imminent danger; at this time ground is moist and in good condition, and corn will do well yet for ten days without rain.

Conspirators Put to Death.

SOFIA, July 28.—The four conspirators, Milaroff, Popoff, Gorgieff and Caraguloff, recently tried by court martial on charges of being implicated in a plot against the lives of Prince Ferdinand, of Bulgaria, and his prime minister, Mr. Tamboff, were put to death in this city at 9 o'clock this morning. A number of other persons, who were tried with the four men, have been sentenced to terms of imprisonment.

Rev. Mr. Crane Going to Bombay.

OMAHA, Neb., July 28.—Rev. H. A. Crane, pastor of the Seward Street Methodist church, has accepted a position offered him by Bishop Thoburn as superintendent of Methodist missions in Bombay, India, and will leave for his new field of labor September 1.

The hotel Nordor, Belding, Mich., burned. The guests all narrowly escaped.

The president has nominated A. R. Sperry to be minister to Persia.

BANK TRAGEDY.

A Crank Speculator's Terrible Deed.

THE MURDERER COMMITS SUICIDE.

Nothing Definite Known as to the Cause—Thought to Be Due to Recent Losses on Margins Put Up on Stocks.

PHILADELPHIA, July 28.—Stock gambling brought about a tragedy yesterday as a result of which Charles H. Page, a well known broker, lies dead at his home, assassinated by a customer, Ronald Kennedy, who has closed his own account with the same weapon that ended the broker's career. No one witnessed the murder and suicide. The only one who could have thrown any light upon the encounter left the office where it occurred as the murderer entered, and half a minute later all was over.

The scene of the double crime was in the offices of E. D. Page & Brother, bankers and brokers at 132 South Fourth street, one of the busiest portions of the city. The senior member of the firm, Mr. E. D. Page, was absent and in addition to the junior members of the firm there was a clerk, Ed Hallowell. The latter was leaving the offices by a rear door at 11:15 a. m., and observed a man coming in by the front entrance. The clerk recognized the newcomer as a former customer, Ronald Kennedy, and continued on his way. He had gone but a few paces when he heard two shots fired in succession. With others he rushed in just in time to see Broker Page gasp his last breath. He had been shot in the back while attempting to escape and had reached the rear doorway, where he fell and died almost instantly.

Into the front of the office the crowd surged only to find the murderer, Kennedy, dead upon his face in front of the ticker, a bullet wound in his head and his revolver lying beneath. Nothing could be done but inform the coroner, who took charge of the place and endeavored to ascertain the cause of the assassin's act.

The broker's wife and child were absent at Cape May and other of the family were also out of reach. Hallowell, the clerk who has been eight years with the firm, was the only person who knew anything of the transactions of the two dead men. He says that it is two years since Kennedy first came to the office and began dealing on 10 and 15 per cent. margins, chiefly in Atchison. For several months his transactions were profitable and he made from $14,000 to $20,000. Then the tables turned and Kennedy lost as much as he had made in a short time. Hallowell declares that the firm only bought and sold as directed by Kennedy, who deposited Pennsylvania railroad stock as collateral. When the speculator lost, this was sold to cover the margin. The dead broker always kept Kennedy's accounts according to the clerk and generally had some difficulty in making his customer understand them even when they were in his favor.

Hallowell declares that Kennedy came out about even on his ventures. For a year past he has dropped into the office occasionally, sometimes without speaking to anyone and generally examining the ticker. He was regarded as a crank of the harmless variety and had never made any threats.

Kennedy's address was given as 110 North Eleventh street. Inquiry showed that the murderer had boarded with a Miss Austin at that number for five years. He was a quiet man, apparently about 65 years old, and had told the landlady he came from New Orleans where he was engaged in the wholesale and retail dry goods business during the war. He had said that he was born in Canada and mentioned a man named B. D. Holmes of New Orleans as his friend.

Platform of California Republicans.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., July 28.—The republican state convention adjourned after nominating presidential electors and confirming the nominations of various district conventions. The platform which was adopted indorses the national platform and the nominees of the Minneapolis convention, and gives approval to the organization of the national republican league and republican college leagues; it demands the early completion, under government control, of the Nicaragua canal; the liberal expenditure of money for the improvement of harbors and internal waterways, and it invites capital to build into this state competing transcontinental lines of railway.

A Election For Oklahoma.

WASHINGTON, July 28.—The deficiency bill passed the house yesterday with the Oklahoma election provision, which absolutely settles the matter. There is no doubt about the provision passing the senate, as it originated mainly in that branch. Gov. Seay and Henry Asp, who fought each other in the matter, leave for home to-day, and regard the whole affair settled beyond a doubt.

A Fatal Cave-In.

CARTHAGE, Mo., July 28.—Yesterday afternoon a cave-in occurred at one of the mines on the Lingee land, south of the city, causing the instant death of Dan Kamble, ground boss. He was putting in new timbers, when the heavy mass of rock and dirt crushed the timber on to his chest. A fellow workman named Sagner was also injured, but not fatally.

Heat Deaths at Cleveland.

CLEVELAND, O., July 28.—Up to midnight the deaths from sunstroke reported to the police numbered thirteen, and the prostrations sixty-two. Of these a number will prove fatal.

The two-story frame cooler of the Bruggeman brewery, St. Paul, Minn., collapsed, and three men who were sleeping in the building were buried and one killed.

A SEXUAL PERVERT.

Alice Mitchell Coolly Relates the Brutal Murder of Freda Ward.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., July 28.—The ninth day's proceedings in the Alice Mitchell insanity inquiry found the defense's case closed.

Miss Mitchell, the defendant, was placed upon the stand and there was a great craning of necks by the audience to obtain a view of her. She suffered no embarrassment, but answered all questions coolly and rationally. She said she had known Freda ever since she could remember. The defendant told of her following Freda and of the latter winking at her with her right eye which signified "I love you." She told this coolly enough, but when she came to following Freda down the hill saying "she wanted to see her once more" she burst into tears.

Then followed a most remarkable scene, unparalleled in court annals perhaps. This young girl, without displaying the slightest remorse or even nervousness of manner, told down to the most trivial detail the story of how and why she murdered Freda Ward. She said:

"I took the razor out while going down the hill toward the boat. When I reached Freda I cut her with the razor. As I cut her throat she tried to say something. I intended to cut Freda's throat and then mine, but her sister, Jo, made me mad by striking me with an umbrella, so, after slashing at Jo, I followed Freda and cut her again. All I wanted to do was to cut her so as to kill. I loved her better than anyone in the world."

She expressed a desire to die, now that Freda was no more.

FRICK'S FINE HAND.

Significant Informations Sworn Against Certain of the Strikers.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., July 28.—When Henry C. Frick was shot last Saturday he said, while the doctors were engaged in probing the wounds, that the tragedy would have no effect whatever upon the policy of the company toward the Homestead troubles. That he meant what he said was evinced yesterday when Secretary Lovejoy at 12:30 o'clock appeared before Alderman Mc-Masters and swore out thirty-six informations against as many of the ex-employees of the company and upon which warrants were immediately issued. It was significant, however, that these informations made a change in the nature of the offense, the men being charged with aggravated riot, instead of murder. It is taken as indicating that the company now doubts its ability to sustain the main charge against any of the men and has concluded to content itself by preferring a charge upon which there may be a chance of obtaining some convictions. It was significant also that among the names of those included in the informations were those of nearly every ex-employee who has testified before the coroner's jury that the first shots fired on the morning of July 6 came from the Pinkertons. The fact that the company should select these men as victims, especially in view of the fact that as witnesses before the coroner's jury they would most likely be expected to testify in court, has created a great deal of comment, and that not very favorable to the company.

WILL BOMBS BE USED?

Homestead Strikers Said to Be Ready for the Most Desperate Expedients.

CHICAGO, July 28.—A local paper prints the following special from Homestead: "Since it has become evident that the Carnegie Steel Co., under the protection of the national guard, is absolutely successful in operating its mills, members of the advisory committee have been considering ways and means for preventing any successful working of the plant. One of the prominent members of this committee said: 'We will not under any circumstances permit those mills to run if there is any agency which may be employed to prevent it. We have already selected men who will go into those mills as fast as they can secure employment, who are instructed and sworn to carry out our orders in consummating the policy which we have agreed upon. When we are sure there is no longer any hope for us our representatives in the mills will place explosives where they will do the most harm to the machinery. We have definitely determined that these mills shall not be operated by non-union men and the principal way to prevent it is either to control or wreck the property. I might say a great deal more, but under the circumstances I have gone as far as I dare.'"

Anarchists Swarming.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., July 28.—Inspector McKelvey, who is acting superintendent of police, has been especially vigilant in watching the haunts of the anarchists. The numbers, too, that the inspector located, nearly 1,000 in the county, is quite a revelation to the citizens of Pittsburgh. It has taken an extra supply of men, but the work has been prosecuted day and night.

"LAST EDITION."

How It Was Interpreted by a Kansas Denison—Wanted His Money Refunded.

Of course Dick Slater, whose brilliant pen adds luster to the K. C. Star, was present at the republican blowout yesterday; and of course he had to perpetrate some of his inimitable jokes.

Surrounded by several members of the gang who retired to the Commercial club rooms to enjoy a quiet smoke, Dick leaned back in a chair, elevated his feet at an angle of about 362 degrees, and unlimbered his gifted tongue.

In course of the conversation, some one remarked on the hayseed order peculiar to certain denizens living in Western Kansas and the calm, frank manner they use in sizing up towering buildings when they come to town.

"That just reminds me," broke in Dick, as he emitted a voluminous puff of smoke—"that reminds me of an experience the Star had last week with one of those rustic individuals living in Stephens county.

He subscribed for the weekly and it so happened that the very first issue he received announced 'Last Edition', on its margin.

Noticing this, the old farmer thought he was out his subscription money, for the manager received the following letter:

"I notice that you have got out yore last addition and I want to say that I paid you for a year in advans last week. I don't want to lose this money so if your air not insolvent please refund.

Yours truly,

H. SEED."

Ice Water Without Ice.

From the New York Recorder.

Here is a wrinkle—how to get ice-cold water in places where there is no ice. Wrap a jug—a porous jug one of those common earthenware things—in flannel—wet flannel—wrap it all around, leaving no place exposed to the air; place it, filled with water—or with claret cup, which some sinners prefer to water—in an open window exposed to all the air there is. Keep the flannel wet; in an hour the contents of that jug will be almost as cool as if they had been iced. This is a tropical trick, which tricks the tropics.

A Humane Manager.

From the Kansas City Journal.

Railroads are supposed to be soulless corporations, but every now and then something transpires to show that the supposition is false. A striking instance is found in the order issued by General Manager Robinson, of the Santa Fe, instructing yard men to discontinue work for the present, if the excessive hot weather continues, and informing them that their pay is to go on without interruption in the interval. In other words, this class of employes is to be given a vacation on full pay, till the torrid weather subsides. Such exhibitions of humane regard for the health and comfort of workmen will render more cordial the relations between capital and labor, for they tend to allay jealousy of interests and beget feelings of kindness and good will. The Santa Fe will lose nothing by its generous course.

SHOP AND RAIL.

ITEMS OF INTEREST TO LOCAL TRAINMEN.

News About Different Roads, Employers and Employees.

Frank Mounts, the jovial Lexington branch conductor, is enjoying a lay off.

The stock business on the M., K. T. is said to have fallen off to an alarming extent. The Cotton Belt is making great inroads upon the "Katy" and taking lots of the business. Perhaps Col. J. W. Barbee, late of the "Katy" has had something to do with the case.

Chas. Brown, recently of the M., K. & T. shops, has accepted a position as resident and traveling solicitor for the job printing house of M. H. Ingram. Mr. Brown's health compelled him to make the change and it is to be hoped that he will be benefited by it.

Taylor Lingo, a former well-known employee in the auditor's department of the general offices while in this city, came in this morning from Parsons on his way to St. Louis, where he expects to secure a position with the Cotton Belt. This is Taylor's first visit to Sedalia since he left to go with the East Line and Red River.

L. A. Fuller, of St. Louis, the veteran superintendent of the Pacific Express company is in the city, in consultation with Vice-President Purdy, regarding the recent train robbery at Adair. The many friends of Capt. L. A. Taylor, until recently general fuel and tie agent on the M., K. & T. railroad, will be sorry to learn that he is in very bad health, having been confined to his room at Hartford for some weeks. His physicians are fearful lest he should never be able to leave his bed again alive.—Parsons Sun.

No Calls for the Reward.

The reward of $40,000, offered by the M., K. & T. railway and Pacific Express company for the capture of the gang that robbed the express car on the M., K. & T. railway at Adair, in the Indian territory, as yet remains intact with but few takers. A number of detectives have been in consultation with the officials regarding the matter, and it is believed that at no distant date one or more of the gang will be captured. There has been much sensational talk indulged in and written about the Dalton boys and plans suggested for their capture, but it is conceded by those conversant with the situation that the capture of any member of the Daltons will have to be accomplished through one or more of the gang, and it will be done in such a quiet way that few will be aware of what has happened.—Parsons Sun.

DON'T WANT IT.

Major Warner Does Not Like Joint Debates.

From the St. Louis Chronicle.

Speaking of a joint debate Major Warner said: "I have not considered that matter much of late. What does Colonel Stone think about it?"

The Chronicle correspondent who had just come from Colonel Stone, said: "While I am not authorized to speak for Col. Stone, I think if you would challenge him he would accept instantly, and would joyfully meet you on every stump and house top in the state."

"Well," continued Major Warner, "I've been through a number of campaigns in Missouri and have never yet joined in a joint debate. I have noticed that joint debates lead up to personalities between the debaters, and I don't desire that sort of a campaign. There are great issues at stake and the election should decide them."

Tricks in All Trades.

From Puck.

Customer—I would like to have you repair this watch. Now, I don't want you to tell me the whole mechanism is out of order and it will take two weeks to repair it, and cost half what the watch is worth. You can't fool me! I know a trick or two.

Watchmaker(meekly)—H'm! You are a watchmaker, I presume?

Customer—No; a doctor.

PICKPOCKETS.

THE NIMBLE-FINGERED GENTRY AT WORK YESTERDAY.

Several Robberies Reported and Handsome Sums of Money Lost—No Clue to the Thieves.

Yesterday was a big day for the nimble fingered gentry who invaded Sedalia in anticipation of the opportunities offered by the multitudes for plying their theiving art.

While several robberies were committed, yet when the magnitude of the occasion is considered, it must be admitted that the precautions taken by the police department were of the very best, and that the petty losses sustained are of comparative insignificance.

So far as learned, a G. A. R. man, name unknown, living in the western portion of the county was the first victim.

While parading the streets amidst a seething mass of humanity some envious villian slipped his deft and dexterous digits into his pants pocket and drew therefrom his money purse. The exact amount lost cannot be ascertained, though it is reported that it will not exceed $20.

The next man that fell a prey to thieves was Abraham Kindrick, of Clarksburg, Montau county. He is a pretty heavy loser, the amount of which he was deprived being something over $70.

He has no knowledge of where the money was taken, nor any idea who took it. Mr. Kendrick is a very prosperous farmer.

Perhaps the most sensational experience was that had by Street Car Conductors Charley Rymer and Harry Barnett and Lineman Ryan. It was currently reported on the streets to-day that these men were nabbed while running cars, but such was not the case. While walking down Kentucky street they were set upon by three burly ruffians, who emerged from an alley and badly beaten. The ruffians according to the testimony of the car men, had no provocation whatever for the assault. Rymer and Burnett had their faces beaten terribly and they present a very bad appearance to-day. Ryan was not hurt to amount to any thing.

The ruffians were strangers to the city and were evidently bent on robbery.

Deals in Dirt.

Following are to-day's real estate transfers:

The heirs of Wesley B. Shaw to J. E. Guthrie and Thomas Serrey: s e q r of n w q r and 3 1/2 of s e q r and 3 1/2 of s w q r and 3 1/2 n w q r, sec. 24, and s w q r of n e q r and n e q r and s e q r, sec. 25, and s e q r of n e q r and n w q r of n w q r, and n w of n e q r, sec. 23, twp. 46, range 24. Also lots 6 and 7, block 3, Hall's addition to Dresden. Consideration, $6,000.

Susan and Lizzie Shaw and husband to Thos. Terry and R. E. Guthrie: some property. Price, $2,000.

Chicken Thief Jailed.

Charley Field, the negro who was recently arrested as being a partner in the wholesale chicken stealing firm of Hayden Bryant, was before Justice Levens this morning for stealing a few midnight songsters from W. H. Huff, the dairyman, about July 15th. He was fined $5 and made to hide himself in jail, where he will lead a pious life for a few days at the county's expense.

Beer Drinkers.

Several boys on going to the park where the exercises took place yesterday discovered three kegs of beer which they at once proceeded to tap. It is reported that one or two took on too much of the beverage and as a consequence experienced considerable difficulty in getting back home.

Quality and Equality.

From London Judy.

"And so you left your place through having had words with your mistress?"

"Well mum, not words, mum—not adactly what you might call words, mum. I only spoke to her as a lady might to another."

Ben Butler's Suggestion.

From the St. Louis Chronicle.

Ben Butler was asked by a reporter anent the trieing up by the thumbs of Private Iams at Homestead: "Has Iams any redress in this case?"

"If there is an honest jury in Pennsylvania he has. It was wholly unjustifiable. In the first place, the Colonel should be tried by a military commission of the National Guards, and his punishment by that tribunal can only extend so far as to take away his commission. Then he should be tried by a jury for a cruel assault, and put in jail or fined, and then sued by the man and made to pay many thousand dollars, if he can pay it, for the outrage. That is all that ought to happen to the Colonel that I can think of now."

Unless General Butler proposes to think up a cruel and unusual punishment, comparable to the injury inflicted by Streater on Iams, he might stop at that.

MEAN MISREPRESENTATION.

Col. Terry Denounces the Report That He Has Become a Political Apostate.

Col. Vincent Terry, formerly of Sedalia but now a resident of Kansas City, is in town looking after his business interests here. He accosted a DEMOCRAT reporter to-day and wanted a denial published of the report circulated by designing politicians yesterday that he intended to support Warner.

"There is absolutely no foundation for such a statement," said the gentleman indignantly, "and I want to denounce it as a malicious misrepresentation. I propose to vote the straight democratic ticket as I have done for forty years."

Being very wealthy and a man of large influence, it can well be seen that political capital was the object in giving the report to the public. Col. Terry said he expected to see Stone elected by 10,000 majority.

Before Justice Fisher.

The case of J. C. Settles, charged by his wife with abandoning his child, was dismissed at the defendant's cost.

Harris Cohen, charged with assault and battery upon Birdie M. Wylie, a child of the woman known as "Scar Face Charley," failed to appear when the case was called this morning and his bond of $25 was accordingly forfeited.

Finished Their Work.

Wheeler and Ellmore, the Kansas City contractors for the sub-grading at the kite track completed their work last evening about dusk. Mr. Wheeler stated to a DEMOCRAT reporter this morning that their grading machinery would be shipped to Kansas City in two or three days.

PERSONALS.

E. C. Mason was on east bound passenger at noon.

J. G. Leming, of the Webb City Times, was among the newspaper visitors yesterday.

Col. J. H. Christopher, proprietor of the Pertle Springs resort, witnessed yesterday's sights.

Genial Lee Houx of Warrensburg was in town playing chess with "Elder" Marvin last night.

Mrs. R. N. Mason and children of Lockwood, Mo., are in the city visiting relatives on East Fifth St.

Mr. F. C. Child, State Secretary of the Missouri Y. M. C. A., is a guest of Secretary Langhorne to-day.

L. D. Hopkins, superintendent of the middle division of the Missouri Pacific is talking to the depot boys to-day.

Liveryman Harris, of Houstonia, was in town to-day and reports a good sized crowd at McAllister Springs.

Hon. George B. P. Jackson, of Sedalia, came over Wednesday to attend circuit court.—Fayette Advertiser.

Walt Monroe, of the Tipton Times, and his cousin, H. L. Monroe, of Ft. Smith, Ark., were in town yesterday, taking in the rally.

Gen'l Wm. Ryder, who cannot express his contempt for Old Man Filley, came up from Arkansas and mingled with the hordes yesterday.

Misses Helen and Louise Church, of Jefferson City, were the guests of Miss Juliet Ingram yesterday. They left for home on the noon train to-day.

Mrs. Mary L. McCarter, sister of J. W. O'Brien, on East Thirtieth street, left at noon for her home in Indianapolis, Indiana, after a three weeks' visit with her brother and family.

Mrs. Jno. A. Hannay and Mr. Hannay's mother passed through Sedalia this morning, enroute to Versailles from Texas, where they have been spending several months. Col. Hannay will come home from Washington immediately upon adjournment of congress.

Col. Henry T. Burekhart of the Fayette Democrat and Col. Jim Taylor, the republican Moses of Howard county, missed their train last night and were compelled to remain over night. Col. Burekhart didn't seem to regret his detention, however, as it gave him additional opportunity for talking to his girl.

Maj. G. M. Lain, member of the legislature from St. Louis, was one of the big guns present yesterday. Introducing himself to a DEMOCRAT reporter, he said: "I am the author of the notorious road bill"—"and also," chimed in Billy Ryder, "of the infamous rat bill." The road bill, it will be remembered, proposed to construct a boulevard from St. Louis to Kansas City with convict labor.

A SHORT HISTORY

Of the Miner Symptomatic Gold Treatment and Some of the Secrets of its Unrivalled Success.

The Miner treatment is not an experiment, but the outgrowth of a complete and careful research, combined with years of experience. Centuries ago Paracelsus discovered a golden light and proclaimed to the world that the great eradicating agent for all hereditary taints would be found in gold, the king of metals. Ever since it has been demonstrated to the world that alcoholism is a curable disease, there has existed much of skepticism and prejudice, coming not only from the general public, but from the medical fraternity as well. It has taken time to overcome these obstacles. There was also need for improvement in the remedies used, and a more scientific system for their administration. In formulating our treatment, Symptomatic Gold Treatment these and many other most needed requisites for a safe and scientific course of treatment have been successfully met.

After visiting numerous institutions established for the treatment and cure of diseases in question, and upon close investigation we are frank to admit that there is a marked similarity in all treatments. It is not our intention to speak disparagingly of any who may, either by word or deed, help on this grand work. Yet, as we have already indicated, to our minds, the only safe and reliable treatment is that which is known and admits of variation by the physician in charge. Then and only then is he prepared to meet complications and suit his treatment to the changing conditions of the patient, as in pneumonia, typhoid fever, or any other disease.

Therefore, in presenting to you our Symptomatic Gold Treatment, we beg you to consider it thoughtfully, and should it recommend itself to your best judgment we shall be pleased to have you investigate our work, either in your own interest or in behalf of your friends and suffering humanity.
